Spectators said that the train "pulverized" the car and a California Highway patrolman, on the scene, said that the car "actually exploded." Row, who lived in Indio, was killed instantly in the crash and the train, the Sunset Limited with about 600 passengers aboard, was delayed an hour before being allowed to proceed to Los Angeles. The grill, motor, rear end and body of the car were scattered in four different directions. (Willis Photo)

JESSEL TO BE AT ISRAEL BOND FETE

Georgie Jessel, titled the "Toastmaster General of the United States" by two presidents, will exhibit the form that has made him one of the nation's most sought-after dinner speakers at the Israel Bond Drive Dinner at 7 p.m., Sunday, in the Saddle and Sirloin Restaurant here.

Jessel, whose exploits in show business have made him a virtual legend, toured the Holy Land — principally Israel — when the new democracy was in its first formative stages. So impressed was he since given a major portion of his time to aiding the young nation.

THE 60-YEAR-OLD speaker leaves a busy Los Angeles schedule — he launched a new daily television show over a Los Angeles station this year in what should have been a retirement year — to appear at the bond dinner here.

RESERVATIONS to hear Jessel can still be made by calling Mrs. Ruth M. Backman at FA 5-2009, Jack L. Meyers at FA 4-2790 or Temple Isaiah at FA 5-2055.

Meyers announced that the sponsorship of the dinner has been assigned to the following Messrs. and Meses: John Chernus, Max Grone, A. L. Levin, David Lyons, Zachary Pitts, Stanley Rosin, Abe Schwartz, Jack Spiegel, Aaron Sternberg and Dr. and Mrs. Harry C. Silverberg and Harry Haimowitz. The Meyers are also sponsors.

Aiding the sponsors are Messrs. and Meses: Sigmund Ehrens, Marty Cobin, Leib Rosen and Henry Birns and Rabbi Joseph Hurwitz.

White Christmas Predicted In Northeast; 620 'May' Die

United Press International Christmas Eve found Americans on the move, heading for family get-togethers to celebrate the most joyous, and most dangerous, holiday of the year.

Colder air pushing into the Midwest and East brought seasonable temperatures and a possibility of a white Christmas to much of the nation's northeast quarter. Weathermen predicted snow flurries to day for the Great Lakes region and New England.

TEMPERING the holiday celebration was a warning by the National Safety Council that as many as 620 persons will be killed in traffic during the 102-hour period from 6 p.m., local time, to night to midnight Sunday.

If the council's estimate is borne out, it means Christmas week-end traffic will claim 140 more lives than the normal figure of 480 deaths for a similar non-holiday period at this time of year.

THE ALL-TIME, all-holiday traffic fatality mark was established during the four-day "black Christmas" weekend of 1956 when United Press International counted 712 highway deaths.

Beebe Asks Pay Plan For Council

Switch in Election Method Also Held For Monday Meet

A report on pay for Palm Springs city councilmen, sought by Councilman George Beebe, may gain additional inspection by the council when it discusses a proposed new method of electing council members Monday afternoon.

The council, discussing the substitution of an election-at-large system for the present district elections, carried that matter over to its informal discussion meeting after hearing a report from the city attorney.

COUNCILMAN BEEBE'S request for a pay schedule for the council was assigned for report to be made at the Monday session.

City Attorney Jerry Bunker, in a written report on procedure for the repeal of councilmanic districts and the establishment of election of councilmen at large, outlined steps that must be taken by the city council.

An ordinance would have to be introduced abolishing the councilmanic district system. It would have to come at a regular council meeting.

THE ORDINANCE would provide that districts 1, 3, 5 and 7 go out of existence on the second Tuesday in April 1960, and that districts 2, 4 and 6 go out of existence on the second Tuesday in April, 1962. To complete a five-member council, two persons would be elected on the former date and three on the latter.

Any qualified elector who meets citizenship requirements shall be able to run for council office, Bunker said.

The present system of election was adopted by a vote of the people. The new proposed ordinance will also have to be submitted to the people. The people approved the councilmanic district system by only a majority vote, so only a majority vote is necessary to repeal the system.

COUNCILMAN BEEBE'S suggestion to add a referendum for compensation of councilmen was also discussed. It could be held with the councilmanic election change proposition.

Both measures can be held on the same ballot, tied together or separated. Further discussion will be held Monday on both matters.

British Plane Crashes on Test Flight; 9 Killed

BOURNEMOUTH, England — A four-engined Bristol Britannia carrying 12 persons on a routine test flight crashed into a fog-bound field near here today and disintegrated as it hit the ground.

Nine bodies were taken to Christchurch Hospital near the crash scene, police said. There were three survivors.

ALL THE DEAD and injured were British Overseas Airways personnel, BOAC announced.

The prop-jet Britannia had been on a 90-minute flight from London Airport 100 miles north of here and apparently was coming in for a landing at Hurn Airport outside Bournemouth.

IT HAD GIVEN no indication of trouble in a routine radio message a few minutes before the crash.

Eyewitnesses said there was a fog. The Britannia roared near the ground, crashed through telephone wires, narrowly missed a cyclist, bounced in a field and disintegrated in a small woods.

There were 21 cows in the 20-acre field. Three were killed.

Weather

Desert Area Forecast: Variable high cloudiness but mostly sunny today and Thursday. Slightly warmer today with highs 60-70 up-er valleys, near 75 lower valleys. Yesterday's high was 72, low 36.

SLAUGHTER NAMED C OF C PRESIDENT

Warren Slaughter, senior partner in the law firm of Slaughter, Schlesinger and Schlecht, has been elected 1959 president of the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce, it was announced today by Chamber Manager Jimmy Cooper.

A unanimous vote of the Chamber's board of directors gave Slaughter the position. Cooper said. The Chamber's board, elected by the membership, traditionally selects the organization's leadership.

ALSO ELECTED by the directors to assist Slaughter were Bill Smith, first vice president; Ward Risvold, second vice president, and Harold West, treasurer. Smith is president of Coachella Valley Savings and Loan Assn., Risvold is publisher of The Desert Sun, and West is assistant manager of the Bank of America.

SAM BORK, OF the Retail Merchants Assn., was appointed to fill the vacancy resulting from Retail Merchants President Ed McCoubrey's status changing from appointed member to elected member of the board.

In attendance at their first director's meeting were newly-elected members Robert Blashek, Dr. William Elliott, Jr., Richard Vander Veer and Don Fry.

Attendants at Bennet-May and Pulaski funeral homes here said it might be hours before the remaining victims were identified. "We're trying to make the identification through dental work," one attendant said.

Postal Workers Slate Christmas Day Deliveries

Crews of postal workers will work throughout Christmas Day delivering parcels and special delivery letters to Village homes. Postmaster Merritt Williams said yesterday.

No Christmas cards will be delivered tomorrow, he said, and service windows at the Palm Springs Post Office will be closed. Williams said that although the Post Office has been deluged with late yuletide mailings, the flow of mail and parcels has been smooth.

"We are receiving mail from the Midwest postmarked Dec. 22," Williams said, "and from the Northwest postmarked Dec. 23. It appears that service is quite good."

"The airline strikes in the east may have forced some delays in parcel shipments," he added, "but even East Coast mail is coming through nicely."

Atlas Orbit Set For Bethlehem

NEW YORK (UPI) — The Atlas satellite now circling the earth may stay in orbit twice the predicted 20 days and will pass over the Holy Land on Christmas Day, the Air Force Ballistic Missile Division commander said today. Maj. Gen. Bernard A. Schriever, in an interview on NBC-TV's "Today" show, also indicated that space probes of planets other than the moon might be made.

West Aims 'Distorted' By Soviets

U. S. Says German Reunification Must Be Agenda Item

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The State Department today rejected Russia's latest suggestion for a conference on European security which would omit discussion of German reunification.

The department, at the same time, charged that the Soviet Union "distorts the aims and motives of Western proposals directed at reaching equitable settlements of the outstanding political issues which divide the Free World from the Communist world."

PRESS OFFICER Lincoln White made the statement in commenting on an official Russian news agency statement declaring that the Soviets were ready to confer on the general problem of European security if the West abandoned its insistence that German reunification be discussed first.

White pointed out that the 18 NATO countries at their recent Paris meeting pledged themselves to continue to seek solutions for outstanding East-West disputes but insisted that the problem of European security is closely linked with German reunification.

OTHER OFFICIALS said the Russians obviously misread the NATO communiqué if they thought that members of the Western alliance were willing to discuss European security without also talking about the German question.

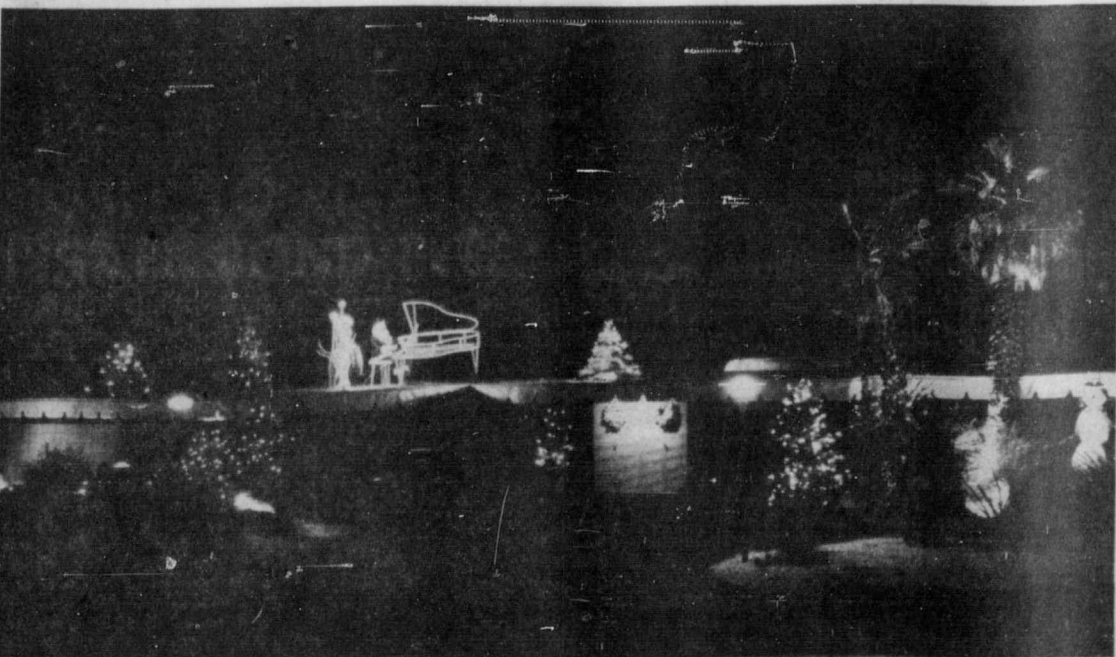

The State Department also charged anew that the N A T O build-up was necessitated by "Soviet policy itself." It rejected the Russian assertion that Western foreign policy had as its sole aim the buildup of military forces.

Youth Injured In Accident

David Jerome Bradley, 16, of Cabazon, suffered minor injuries yesterday when he was caught between the bumpers of a backing truck and a parked car in Rancho Mirage.

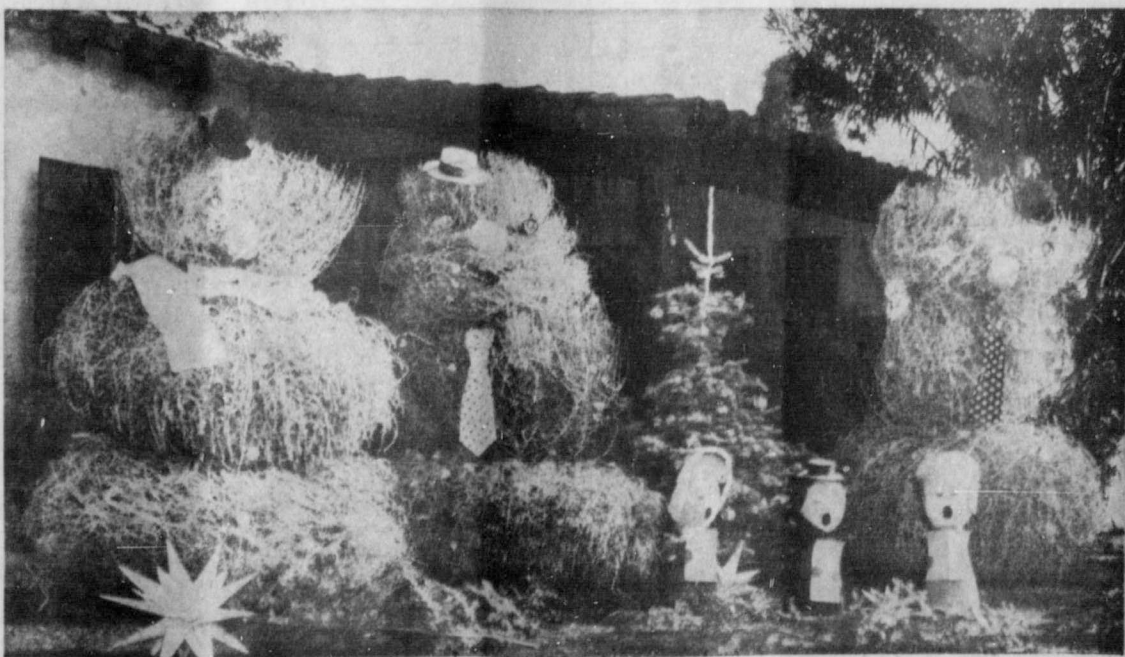

Bradley suffered a bruised leg and thigh when he was caught by a truck being backed along the shoulder of Tangier Road by Daniel Aragon, 23, of Indio, the California Highway Patrol reported.

Tumbleweed Snowmen, Piano-Playing Santa Win in JayCee Contest

SWEETSTAKES AND FIRST PRIZE in the Palm Springs Junior Chamber of Commerce's Christmas-Lighting Contest went to Mrs. Perry Johnson and Liberace, respectively, for the displays shown above. Mrs. Johnson, an art-minded widow who lives at 946 Avenida

Palos Verdes, said that since the sponsor "wanted a desert Christmas, I fixed a desert Christmas." She utilized tumbleweeds—painted with artificial snow—to fashion three snowmen which she grouped on her front lawn and added a Christmas tree and three tiny carolers to round out the picture. The display comes alive at night with lights and piped hi-fi carols aiding the effect. Liberace, who plays some piano himself, sat a Santa Claus down at a grand piano on his roof and then "loaned" St. Nick one of his own candelabra to light the scene. A snowman also figures in the display at Liberace's house at 1516 Manzanita Ave. Prize winners in all categories received Junior Chamber of Commerce prizes donated by Village merchants.

Thomas Mountain Zoning Plan Vigorously Opposed

This week's hearing before the Board of Supervisors on a comprehensive zoning plan for approximately 15,000 acres in the Thomas Mountain area along the Palms-to-Pines Highway ended with a referral back to the planning commission with a request that consideration be given to paring it back to the pin-point size for which zoning was originally contemplated. On a motion by Supervisor Fred McCall the supervisors asked the planning commission to eliminate everything from the plan but the Thomas Mountain subdivision for which zoning had been asked, plus a fringe area to be determined by the commission as necessary for protection, and to increase the C-P restricted commercial zoning in accordance with a request by Jack Corey for his two-and-one-half acre parcel.

AT ONE POINT in the hearing which brought forth a preponderance of opponents to the plan, Supervisor William Jones suggested that the whole thing go back to the planning commission to be "ironed out."

Enos Reid, Riverside attorney, who said he represented property owners at the southern end of the area who are opposed to inclusion in the zoning plan, promptly protested Jones' suggestion. "We do not want another hearing before the planning commission," he declared. "We want to be excluded today. This is the time and the place."

PLANNING DIRECTOR Tyler Suess blamed much of the opposition to misunderstanding of the W-2 zone under which much of the area was to be placed. He said that contrary to opinions expressed at the hearing, subdividing would be allowed, grazing of cattle would be automatically granted, golf courses, guest ranches and all other uses of the R-1 zone would be permitted in the W-2 zone.

The area proposed for zoning included Lake Hemet and large acreages such as the Garner Ranch and Bunker Ranch. Dr. W. G. Weber said he believed the majority of the property owners in the Thomas Mountain subdivision would object to increasing the commercial zone area on Corey's property which McCall proposed in his motion. "There's still a lot of indecision," declared Supervisor Paul Anderson, board chairman.

DENNIS DAY WILL SING when the Chi Chi unveils its New Year's Eve show, but the perennial Irish tenor insists on doing more. He'll also double and triple as mimic-comic for the big night's festivities. The rest of the show shapes up as even more fun, with Bill Alexander's Chi Chi Orchestra backstopping things for Dennis and dancing.

Rancho Mirage

Mrs. H. M. (Mary) Greene, who this year is supervisor of cafeterias for the Long Beach School District, arrived today to spend Christmas with Mr. Greene at their Desert Lodge. Cuttress of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Summers of Hollywood, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Grun of South Pasadena, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wesslen from San Pedro, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Thornburg of Newport Beach, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Hixson of South Pasadena, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wick and children from Detroit. Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Perry left for their home in Long Beach after a week of desert son at Greene's Desert Lodge and Mr. and Mrs. H. L. King are here for a month.

Saund Visits Supervisors, Promises Help

Congressman D. S. Saund of Brawley, visited the Board of Supervisors this week en route to Washington. In an informal discussion following the board session he touched briefly on Riverside County problems and asked that county officials keep in touch with him and keep him informed. The congressman said he believes the county will be reimbursed by the Federal Government for damage to Ryan Airport. He declared "Riverside County shouldn't become an adjunct of the Metropolitan Water District."

'Kingfish' Rites Held Saturday

LOS ANGELES — Rites — Funeral services were held Saturday for Harry (Tim) Moore, 70, the loquacious "Kingfish" of the Amos 'n' Andy television series. He died Dec. 13 of tuberculosis. Honorary pallbearers for the beloved Negro entertainer included Freeman Gosden and Charles Correll, who play Amos 'n' Andy, and Eddie Anderson, "Rochester" of the Jack Benny show.

Vending machines that will issue accident policies to passing motorists are being made for an insurance company which plans to place them along major highways.

Waste Disposal Truck Employees To Get Day Off

Although their fellow city employees avail themselves of more than a half dozen holidays, annually, the men who man Palm Springs' waste disposal trucks get just one—Christmas.

Waste Disposal Division Supervisor A. H. Boston made this observation here yesterday in noting that no rubbish pickup will be made on Dec. 25.

"Subscribers who would normally have a rubbish pickup on Thursday, Dec. 25, should plan to have one or more cartons available to store the rubbish which will accumulate until their next pickup day," said Boston.

The supervisor said that he hoped the inconvenience caused by the missed pickup would be overlooked by letting "the spirit of Christmas prevail," so that the disposal workers may spend Christmas with their families.

500 Attend Graduation of Seeing Eye Class

BEAUMONT — More than 500 persons — including public officials and celebrities — were on hand to observe graduation of the final 1958 class at the Eye Dog Foundation here last week.

Board Chairman Edward Raiden, a Los Angeles attorney, presided at ceremonies that were attended by U.S. Congressman D.S. Saund, Beaumont Mayor R. A. Cloverdale, and screen stars Richard Bakalyan and Skip Young.

Music was furnished by the March Air Force Base band and a graduating student — 20-year-old Jolene Galtner — walked her new "eyes" for a six-block distance in demonstration of her new acquisition.

County Studies Indio Dump Proposal

To the road department for study went a proposal received by the Board of Supervisors this week from Indio's city manager, James O. Tennant, that consideration be given to the acquisition of property adjacent to the eastern city limits for use as a joint county-city cut and cover disposal facility to serve the Indio-Coachella Storm Water channel.

Tennant said the Indio City Council believes the proposed site to be favorable because of its topographical nature which makes it wasteland. The property is the east half of the southwest quarter of Section 19, Township 5 South, Range 8 East, excepting the portions within rights of way for an emergency (overflow) drain for the Coachella branch of the Al American canal and for the Coachella Storm Water channel.

"You might also consider acquisition of the Southeast quarter of the same section," suggested Tennant. "The land in both properties is badly eroded and completely useless under existing conditions. Access roads can be provided with nominal expense."

Angle Parking To Be Approved

Angle parking in existence on Palm Drive and Pierson Boulevard in Desert Hot Springs will become legal Jan. 21 when an ordinance adopted by the Board of Supervisors this week becomes effective.

The parking was established by the Desert Hot Springs Chamber of Commerce in April of 1937. It was later discovered that action by the Board of Supervisors would be required to make it legal.

The ordinance stipulates that the angle parking may be allowed only where curbs and gutters are installed and the roadway is paved from curb to curb, with a minimum width of 75 feet curbs.

Compromise

CHICAGO — (UPI) — There are more harmonicas in Japan than any other musical instrument — for financial reasons.

Naoyuki Suenaga, vice president of a Japanese Cultural Center at Fukuoka, told the American Music Conference that "pianos are actually Japan's most popular instruments, but more people can afford harmonicas."

INSURANCE FOR THE success of the New Year's Eve Party at the Jewish Community Center is Morey Thal, who has been making the desert "jump for joy" with his piano-organ renditions over the past several years. Sponsored by the Men's Club of the Center, this year's affair will include a dance, special entertainment, novelty acts, prizes and a pre-dawn breakfast. Reservations may be made by calling FA 5-2055.

Salton Sea Development's Record of Survey Approved

A Record of Survey for a real estate development in the Salton Sea area was approved by the Board of Supervisors this week over the protest of Supervisor Curtis Chamberlain who voted against it because it calls for septic tanks instead of sewers.

The planning commission recommended approval with conditions which include a requirement that the subdivider's engineer furnish the county health department with plans indicating the type and capacity of individual sewage disposal systems that shall include the size of septic tanks and length and width of leaching lines.

Truman Lashes New Hoffa Plan

NEW YORK (UPI)—Former President Truman has spoken out against the plans of Teamsters President James Hoffa to organize municipal workers.

"They are public servants. I don't think anybody has the right to fool with them," Truman said. "If I were president, nobody would."

The former president made his comments to reporters Monday after arriving here with his wife to spend Christmas with their daughter, Margaret, her husband, Clifton Daniel, and their son, Clifton Truman Daniel.

What Was It Like That Night at Inn?

By FRANK SCULLY, KSG

What was it like the night that Child was born?
Was it like this where sand and moon are one?
Did all the poor, the natives, look for-lorn,
While at the Inn the rich had just begun
To celebrate the Season with some fun?
Was it a night when strapless gowns were worn
And furs of mink and bracelets made of horn,
Or were they all as modest as a nun?

Was Bethlehem a mixed-up town like this?
Was everyone excited by the din?
Were lovers under mistletoe in bliss,
And others contemplating ways to sin?
In all the crowded pleasures did they miss
A chance to welcome Him, denied the Inn?

There isn't much written about what the rich were doing on Christmas Eve but since they have always been news, it would have been reported if they were hovering around that cave. The only ones who did join the festive day certainly were not neglected in the chronicles. They were the Three Kings.

There was a good deal of pushing around in those days just as there is now. St. Joseph had to go from Galilee out of the town of Nazareth to Judea, the town of David which was called Bethlehem, because he was of the family of David. And why? Well, Caesar Augustus wanted a census taken "of the whole world" so he ordered everybody back to his home town to make sure there would be no slippage in his head-counting operation. That mothers would be carrying babies, and one in particular carrying the Infant Jesus in her womb, made no difference to Caesar.

But St. Joseph, who dealt with one crisis at a time did as he was ordered, only to find when he reached his old home town there was no place that would take him in, especially as he had an espoused wife who was expected to have a Baby any minute.

Would the same thing happen today? I'm afraid the percentage is highly in favor of it.

"We'd invite you to stay with us but we don't have an extra room," is a standard cliché around Palm Springs. I guess they translated it from the Aramaic.

So Christ was born in a stable and His Blessed Mother "wrapped him in swaddling clothes and laid him in a manger, because there was no room for them at the inn."

"Well, Inns can be crowded on occasion but private homes can arrange things somehow. Or is it only the poor who know that "move over" is a mark of hospitality and a little more water in the soup never hurt anybody?

That the shepherds saw and heard an angel who told them not to be afraid and led them to the manger did not mean that no one else was told. The shepherds were quiet. They were night watchmen of flocks of sheep. They could hear what was going on around them. So they heard the angel. They and the Three Kings.

The rest were too busy listening to the yacking of their own voices. And so they missed the greatest event in human history.

A 'Constitution' for NATO

PARIS, FRANCE — To those who are moon-struck, half a moon always seems better than none.

It is the same with the addicts of a world state. With the failure of the Communist half to grant democratic totalitarianism, the one worders on our side searched the title of the United Nations and found a loophole in Article 51.

THIS SECTION proclaims that "Nothing in the present Charter shall impair the inherent right of individual or collective self-defense if an armed attack occurs . . . With the ruthlessness of realists, in good causes and bad, the Western internationalists interpreted this to read, "if an armed attack occurs (or might occur)." It was through this dubious aperture that the Western powers squirmed in April, 1949, to justify and legalize the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

Nobody can reasonably deny that NATO has served its military purpose of deterrence, and perhaps it is uncharitable to smudge the compliment. But the NATO council of ministers is meeting here with a handful of ideas about turning this 15-nation polygamy - of necessity into a confederation of sorts.

IF THERE ARE Americans who object, let them speak now or hereafter merely hold their heads and moan. If Belgians prefer being a small country with their own kind of government and culture, or if Canadians like the cut of their own jib, they should make themselves heard. For the curious cultists who believe that bigger - is - better are in the saddle at Paris. There are these evidences of homogeneity, or-bust.

The diplomatic lip is being curled at the uncivilized propensity of Iceland and Norway to behave with independence. The Iceland law and philosophy forbid sending troops outside the nation. The Norwegian historical experience is that foreign troops, once admitted, are hard to dislodge. Hence, Iceland has contributed no force to NATO while Norway has refused to let NATO troops be quartered there.

SEVERAL OTHER European nations, some openly and some otherwise, have objected to the stockpiling of atomic materials on their territories. Each of these points, right or wrong, is an example of national individualism. Each is under attack.

Some sort of NATO "constitution" is being established, not in written form but in a series of precedents. The French, it is claimed received permission to send the majority of their NATO divisions to North Africa. The British, very definitely, asked and received permission of a NATO committee to begin the withdrawal, and perhaps the eventual liquidation, of British forces on the continent.

NOW, THIS precedent of seeking permission for a national decision at a NATO level has a good deal of meaning for Americans. Let us suppose that we wanted to remove our own troops, that we asked permission, that it was refused by a NATO committee, that the refusal was upheld by a President as part of our treaty obligation. This imaginary but imaginable incident would subordinate the American Constitution to the unwritten constitution of NATO.

Already there are examples of NATO approval or disapproval of American actions. NATO's Secretary-General, Paul Henri Spaak, a Belgian, has made these two public comments about American foreign policy. Spaak disclaimed being an official spokesman but his comments have been published and distributed at NATO expense.

SPAAP ON THE U.S. troop landing in Lebanon: "I should like to say that, in my opinion, the Americans . . . were right in what they did in Lebanon."

Spaak on the American policy toward Formosa and Red China: "I cannot say whether I am for or against the U. S. policy in that part of the world . . . It is not enough to say that the Chinese Communists are right about Formosa and that they should therefore be given the islands in question. What we must say is that they have no right to use arms . . ."

Well, it is plain enough from the above that Spaak and like-minded Europeans might very well feel called upon to give or withhold approval of American foreign policy. Again: American Constitution vs. NATO constitution.

MUCH INTERNATIONAL history is being made by these supra-national groups which begin as alliances or (as the UN began) as an association of "peace lovers" and victors of the last war. But history-making of itself is not the best of all possible pursuits, as we are often asked to believe. Edward Gibbon called history "little more than the register of the crimes, follies and misfortunes of mankind."

In the instance of NATO, there is a goodly dash of hokum to begin with. "Our policy," said Secretary of State Marshall in the Harvard speech that became the departing point of our postwar policies, "is directed not against any country or doctrine, but against hunger, poverty, desperation and chaos." The statement needs no editorial garnish when reread in a year, when, in the main, one "country" and one "doctrine" have run up our arms spending past $40 billion.

NORODY COULD doubt that the U. S. would go to battle for an assaulted ally. But would these allies fight if, as is being discussed in Paris, the attack were made directly upon the USA? Well, there is a loophole in the treaty saying that each member-nation shall take "such action as it deems necessary, including the use of armed force." The provision could as well read "excluding the use of armed force." Only the U. S. and Canada, with troops stationed abroad are likely to fight on an alien continent. And you can't help wondering whether the NATO constitution would permit us to bring the boys home—ever.

Editor Desert Sun
It was with profound pleasure and appreciation to have found your recent art-conscious and eloquent editorial.

Believe me, as a long-time newspaper reader as well as artist, I know the importance and rareness of such an editorial. Just as you so sagely observed, art-minded resorts like Carmel and Laguna will long remain alluring attractions for discerning tourists, while flashy honky-tonks flourish for awhile and quickly fade away.

An annual art exhibit would certainly be one good way of fostering the better and more lasting pleasure of human creation. I do hope that local merchants and real estate promoters, will vie with each other to donate cash prizes for outstanding canvases, sculpture and kindred artistic creations.

'He's Not Backing Down for Me Either'

STAN DELAPLANE'S Postcard

This Side of The Sun By Phat

I dallied with the thought of getting by lightly today. Just a lot of blank space with a Christmas greeting down about the middle.

Just then Cliff Miller of KDES played my favorite Christmas carol. And it made me think of what happened 140 years ago to-night when the loved song was first sung and the circumstances that brought it into being.

IT WAS DECEMBER 24, 1818, when Josef Mohr, priest at St. Nikolaus parish in Oberdorf, Austria, sat wearily in his church. He was despondent for he and Organist Franz Gruber had planned for a festive Christmas observance but their plans had gone for naught. There would be no festive Christmas observance that night. The organ was broken. Silent because mice had destroyed the bellows.

WHILE FATHER MOHR was wondering what to do, with but six hours before Midnight Mass and the words for his Christmas sermon would not come, came a knock at the door. A snow-crusted man stood there. He had an urgent message. A mile up the mountain, the road blocked by drifts, a parishioner had given birth to a daughter. She wanted it baptized at once.

Father Mohr wearily trudged through the snow, still despondent for there was no sermon.

THE SIGHT of the radiant mother and her child brought a curious peace to his mind. And as he fought his way through the drifts back to his church, a poem began to form. When he finally kicked the snow from his boots and sank in his chair, it was finished.

He rapidly scribbled the words on a sheet of paper and handed them to his friend, Gruber.

THE LATTER, although there was no organ, set them to music. Father Mohr forced his mind to follow the ritual of Mass but as he finished, the first thin sound of a guitar crept through the still bowed congregation. It was a 12-string peasant guitar, Gruber's own.

With the sound came the faltering voices of children, the children in the tiny church's choir.

THEY SANG SHYLY at first—then with gathering confidence. As Father Mohr listened, his burden lifted, his spirits soared. He knew that the song would serve as his sermon.

What he didn't know was that his simple song was destined for the ages.

He couldn't know, of course. He was hearing that poem set to music for the first time.

BUT IT DID seem right to him.

And as his hand rose in benediction over the heads of the children, the words echoed sweetly, clearly through the little church—

"Silent Night, Holy Night,
"All is calm, All is bright,
"Round yon Virgin, Mother and Child."

MERRY CHRISTMAS.

EARL WILSON:

Rumors of An Assassination

Miami and New York — Now that Miami's joined the Jet Set, we N.Y. columnists can cover it like Toots Shor's. At the opening of the $23,000,000 Diplomat Hotel at Hollywood-by-the-Sea, Fla., a fellow newsman whispered to me: "Here's a scoop for you that I can't use." Naming the President of a Caribbean country, he said, "He's going to be assassinated in February or March!" (NOT Batista; if you want to guess, it's a little south of Cuba.)

Sophie Tucker stirred up things in an interview with the Miami News' Herb Kelly, blasting Frank Sinatra and Judy Garland for committing "the mortal sin of show business—letting audiences down by not showing up" when they don't feel well. "Real troupers never miss a show, whether sick or sad, come hell or high water," Sophie said, adding, "To them the motto the show must go on is not an idle phrase, it is a commandment."

Gypsy Rose Lee's son Erik, 14, got a .22-caliber target pistol for Christmas from a male friend but Gypsy said, "Guns are to kill; you can't keep it." However, Erik's protests persuaded Gypsy she should put the question up to his father . . . Rocky Marciano's 17-year-old brother, Peter Marchegiano, center on the Massachusetts All-State football team, is quite an athlete, but he hasn't got a chance of becoming a world's champion boxer. "My mother wouldn't allow it," Rocky explained to me while we watched the "Brains and Brawn" TV show at the Diplomat. "Your mother wouldn't allow you to, either," I reminded him. "Yeah, but since she had to follow my career in the ring, this poor kid hasn't got a chance," groaned Rocky.

"He claimed in Miami that Samuel Friedman, owner of the new Diplomat, took the $23,000,000 to build it out of his petty cash. He owns 300 Food Fair Stores which will soon be doing a billion-dollar business a year. I asked him how he gets time to run two businesses. "By doing as much as I can on the phone," he said. "When people say it's personal and they can't discuss it on the phone, I generally find it's personal only with them, not with me." Born in Minsk, Russia, he started out as a butcher in Harrisburg, Pa. I asked whether he is religious. "I say I'm not but my rabbi says I am," he replied simply. (I found that he gives huge sums to charities, particularly to Israeli causes.)

These two cats were talking (back in N.Y.) about seeing Eleanor Roosevelt in a store on 54th St. "Does she live around here?" one of them said. "I thought she had a pad down in the Village."

Speaking of the jets, Comedian Jack Carter said they travel faster than sound—"and I know, because I was on one, a stewardess slapped me and I hadn't even asked her anything yet."

Hollywood's good-will ambassador to England, Bob Goldstein of 20th Century-Fox, came back to N.Y. and was feted at a lox-and-bagels Sunday brunch in the Seltzer Room of the Stage Delicatessen. Taking advantage of the Jet Age, his friend Irving Hoffman presented him with the London Sunday papers—flown over that very day.

Wives are funny that way: My B.W. wants me to wear white shirts at night but when Aly Khan shows up in a darkish one at El Morocco, she thinks he looks cute . . . Paul O'Keefe, the Boston kid who took Eddie Hodges' place in "The Music Man" when Eddie went into the movies, is said by some to "be better even than Eddie" (which is hard to believe).

Jose Ferrer is one of the most avid sports fans living. He was telling Mel Allen that when he's in a play he takes a TV set to the theater to catch big sports events. "I tell the cast to act fast, and make the acts short and the intermissions long, so we can catch as much as possible."

THE MIDNIGHT EARL IN N.Y.

Sugar Ray Robinson, who says he may only fight once more—possibly in May—wants to get his night club singing career well launched before that last fight, so you may be seeing him around in your town in the next few months . . . Pat Boone bought a new home in Teaneck, N.J., but can't seem to get moved into it, to the distress of himself and his wife . . . Danny Kaye's spending long hours in Washington as a member of President Eisenhower's Conference on Youth and Children.

MIKE CONNOLLY:

Slow Down for Children

HOLLYWOOD — Yes, Virginia, you're right — Luke, Chapter II, Verse 7, says "There was no room at the inn." But that was 2,000 years ago. People were in too much of a hurry those days. Oh sure, we hurry today too, but we also slow down — especially for little children. And Virginia, I can prove it.

Take Warner-TV, for instance. That's a pretty fast outfit. They shoot two segments of a TV series a week — two of Cheyenne, two of Maverick, two of the new 77 Sunset Strip series, etc. So you see, they have to move fast, Virginia.

WELL, ONE DAY last week they called actress Kathy Hughes and asked her to star in a new segment called "The Girl Who Couldn't Remember." Kathy (who is Mrs. Stanley Rubin offscreen) said fine, she'd be glad to do it, but that she had a problem — little Christopher Henry Allen Rubin, born last Oct. 21. They asked her if she couldn't get a nurse to mind the baby while she was shooting the film.

"No problem there," said Kathy. "My big problem is that I'm an old-fashioned mother — I breastfeed my baby!" And that, Virginia, is how they found room at Warner-TV for little Christopher Henry Allen — the rough, tough guys who run the outfit actually slowed the shooting schedule down to a walk so that his mother can stop work every three hours and breastfeed her baby for 45 minutes.

THE HOLLYWOOD Bowl tried to sign Maria Meneghini Callas but couldn't get her. Then the Bowl bosses tried for her arch-rival, Renata Tebaldi, and got her — but not until July, 1960, she's that busy! . . . Believe it or not, Mme. Meneghini Callas is nice to another opera singer — Elisabeth Schwarzkopf. But I'm told that's because Mme. Schwarzkopf's husband runs Angel Records in Europe, and Angel is the outfit for whom the not-always-angelic Maria makes recordings.

"Auntie Mame" hasn't been doing so well in London recently so Beatrice Lillie, the star of the British version, took matters in her own hands and jazzed it up by adding one of her own song-and-dance numbers. Now the box office is booming.

AVA GARDNER will spend New Year's Eve, her first in Hollywood in seven years, looking down on the lights of Hollywood from the hilltop home of her friend, Clara Griffith. Then she'll take off for Australia to shoot "On the Beach."

Red Buttons will bounce from co-starring with Cathy Crosby, Bob's daughter at Chicago's Chez Paree to co-starring with Kathy Crosby, Bing's wife, in Columbia Pictures' "Circus Story."

Frank Sinatra's frantic morning hangover talk into his own mirror: "Man, what a face — you've started a new race!"

CHANNEL CHATTER — Everyone on Steve Allen's Jan. 18 show will be underwater, including Stevie Nicks, when Esther Williams, MGM's ex-Queen of Glorious Technicolor, introduces her new swimming pool in Glorious Teveecolor.

So you thought TV didn't do much damage to movie business in the U. S. this past year? A 20-Fox topser tells me the company will make twice the money from its pictures shown abroad this year than from the same pictures shown in this country.

John Smith of the Cimarron City series bought a new boat with the earnings from the show and named it Pocahontas.

THE WAY THE Wind Blows (carried on a stray breeze from NBC-TV): "Oh, I don't want to be an actress — I just want to be rich and star in them there TV commercials!"

I had never seen Dinah Shore unhappy until I saw her at the Hollywood Women's Press Club Christmas party honoring her and Tony Curtis as the "most-cooperative - with the press" stars of 1958. I sat next to her and she turned to me and pouted. "I don't think it was very nice of the newspaper girls to tell me this was to be strictly a hen party. Now I find there are men here too. Why didn't they tell me? I would have liked to bring George."

NOT LONG AFTERWARD, Santa Claus arrived at the party and made straight for Dinah. He grabbed her and kissed her. She lit up like a Christmas tree — it was her husband, George Montgomery, under all those crazy whiskers.

Tony Curtis accepted his Golden Apple Award from the newsgals with a crazy little speech: "I love this town and all its wonderfully sick and crazy people!" Dinah, incidentally, is the first TV star to be honored with one of the coveted Apples. When they handed it to her she sighed and said, "I love being the first TV person to win one but I've been sitting here pretending I won it for my last movie — do any of you remember that awful stinker I made at Paramount called 'Aaron Slick from Punkin Creek'?" It brought the house down.

Lower Berdoo Zoning Hearing Set for Jan. 26

Jan. 26 was set by the Board of Supervisors this week as the date for a hearing on a proposed official zoning plan for 17 sections of land known as the Lower Berdoo Canyon District northeast of Indio.

The area is presently interim zoned, I-W-1, watercourse zoning, and the planning commission has recommended that this be adopted as permanent zoning.

The commission finds the lands in the district are subject to severe flood hazard and unsafe for human habitation," said County Planning Director Tyler Sues. "We believe there is adequate provision in the Riverside County zoning ordinance for development of any lands within the district which may be found to be safe from flood hazard."

Sues said the plan has been discussed with the Bureau of Land Management of the U.S. Dept. of the Interior and with representatives of a group seeking to lease or purchase five-acre tracts from the Federal Government and it is acceptable to them. Further release of five-acre tracts in the area is being withheld by the Bureau of Land Management pending the outcome of the Jan. 26 hearing.

When street lights were first installed in Lark, Utah, civic-minded residents arranged the poles so that they spelled out the name of the town in letters large enough to be read from tall buildings in Salt Lake City 27 miles away.

Hirohito to Quit?

Emperor Post Seen for Akihito

TOKYO (UPI) — Prince Akihito celebrated his 25th birthday today. Japanese magazines, and newspapers marked the occasion with speculation that he may become emperor next year.

They said Emperor Hirohito may abdicate next May when Akihito marries pretty commoner Michiko Shoda.

The mass-circulation weekly Shincho Magazine ran a special article titled "Will the emperor seize this fourth chance?"

IT SAID THE possibility of Hirohito abdicating came up on three previous occasions:

—In 1945 after Japan's surrender in World War II.

—In 1948 when the Allied military tribunal convicted Gen. Hideki Tojo and other wartime Japanese leaders for war crimes.

—In 1952, when Japan became independent again and the crown prince came of age on his 18th birthday.

THE MAGAZINE said that in resigning earlier the 57-year-old Hirohito would have assumed some responsibility for World War II. If he steps down now, it said, the implications would be entirely different.

The conservatives, who feel the strongest loyalty to the emperor, were among those who discussed the possibility of his abdication. They said Hirohito has suffered more than any man should have been asked to suffer and that he deserves a rest from public responsibility.

County Road Improvement Given Approval

The Board of Supervisors approved a recommendation made this week by Road Commissioner A. C. Keith that Ford Avenue from Dillon Road southerly for a distance of 1,233 feet in the Desert Hot Springs area be improved and graded and a standard street sign erected at the Dillon intersection.

Keith said that the section of Ford Avenue on which the property of George M. Burton of South Gate is located lies a little more than half a mile further south, beyond the portion of the road which is a county highway and therefore should not be included in the improvement.

Ironically, it was Burton who requested the improvement and proper road signing of the avenue.

PRELIMINARY PLANS FOR INDIO JAIL ADDITION GIVEN APPROVAL

Preliminary plans for an addition to the county jail in Indio were approved by the Board of Supervisors this week and Williams & Williams and John Porter Clark, Associated Architects of Palm Springs, were authorized to proceed with working drawings.

The project is the first of the projects for which the voters approved bond issues Nov. 4 to get under way and is the only one for which architectural services went to architects other than Herman O. Ruhnauf of Riverside. To get the job the Palm Springs firm received an eight percent commission to the six per cent fee already agreed to by Ruhnauf for all the projects.

ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICER Robert T. Andersen told the supervisors that the architect has estimated cost of the Indio jail addition, which is nearly identical in plan to the jail now under construction, at $91,500.

In approving planning procedure Supervisor Curtis Chamberlain declared, "It's O.K. as long as expenditures for the addition do not go over $90,000. We need the rest of the money for the buildings in Riverside." He referred to the probation offices and jail facilities planned for Riverside and included with the Indio jail addition in a lump sum of $715,000 on the November ballot.

THE $90,000 figure has repeatedly been referred to in relation to the bond issue portion for the Indio jail addition.

Andersen said that the $91,500 estimate included an amount of $1,700 for contingencies and $5,200 for architect's fees.

Commented Supervisor Fred McCall, "There's one thing I'd like to mention. Some of the Grand Jury members who toured the jail now under construction in Indio have asked whether we are returning to the old dungeon days."

"IT LOOKED DARK because it wasn't finished," said Administrative Officer Andersen.

"When it is finished and lighted it will look quite different," agreed Supervisor Paul Anderson. "In the old dungeon days they didn't have indirect lighting!"

The jail addition will have space for 40 adult prisoners and 10 juveniles.

Guests From Around the Globe Can Read El Mirador Greetings

The king-sized Christmas card in El Mirador Hotel lobby that extends Christmas greetings in 14 different languages is especially appropriate this year when the hotel is hosting many guests from different parts of the globe. El Mirador's new social director, Maria Brown, is planning many novel activities for the small fry guests during the holiday period.

A juvenile version of El Mirador's famed outdoor steak barbecue will be another highlight of the Christmas program. Two such events are scheduled, December 23 and 30. The young barbequeers will be conveyed to the picturesque barbeque grounds at the foot of Mt. San Jacinto either on horseback or via trolley or haywagon. On the first ride (Dec. 23) youngsters will receive Christmas stockings that Mrs. Brown and singing troubador Tex Kidwell have hung in western fashion on bales of hay bordering the haywagon. There will be contests with prizes in the following categories: ping-pong, shuffleboard and putting on the El Mirador putting green. There will also be feature length movies and Walt Disney cartoons.

Found: at Last-- What to Give Those Who Have

NEW YORK — UPB — Found, at last: An answer to the perennial Christmas question of what to give the person who already has everything.

It turns out that it doesn't really matter much what it is. It can be big, different, expensive or absolutely worthless. But it must be something to talk about.

As long as your gift is a conversation piece, you will be a hit with the recipient.

That's the advice given in a new holiday volume titled "The Complete Christmas Book," edited by Franklin Watts, which aims to solve just about every Yuletide problem a person could imagine.

In 339 pages, the book tells what to give and how to wrap it, what to serve for Christmas dinner and how to cook it, what stories to tell the children on Christmas Eve and how to explain the origin of the holiday.

There are instructions in the selection of Christmas cards, the planning of parties and how to decorate the house.

But one of the key sections is titled "giving to the people who have everything."

Here's what is recommended: —Get something you have never seen before but that you have heard people discussing.

—Give the biggest of anything — the biggest paper clip, the biggest straw bag or straw hat, the biggest decanter or the biggest scarf or apron.

—Give a humorous gift, such as an apothecary jar crammed with 1,000 aspirin tablets or indigestion pills — or whatever you think might amuse a harassed executive.

—Give the most expensive of anything — a single cake of a costly soap, a solid gold house key or similar token of your esteem.

—Give a nostalgic gift — an old book, an old play poster, or penny candy in a jar.

—Give something worthless, such as $1,000,000 worth of real Confederate money.

But whatever it is, the author suggests, "wrap it with wit and imagination."

It's still the thought that counts, especially with the person who has everything.

Luminarios, Unique Yule Custom

Setting out luminarios or "little lights" comes directly from the early Spanish colonial practice of kindling small fires of fragrant pinon wood to light the Christ Child's way at Christmas. Here, Maria Sullivan, a descendant of a Spanish colonial family sets out luminarios around her Albuquerque home in preparation for Christmas. Thousands of these simple paper sack lights glow along walks and driveways during the observance of this custom which is traditional in New Mexico. It is reported to The Aluminum Association that today bright aluminum household foil is used for wrapping the vigil candles that are inserted in the paper sacks. Aluminum foil helps the candles burn longer and assures greater safety.

While the use of luminarios is identified with Christmas, the pleasant, hospitable glow of the little lights suggests that luminarios might add to the charm of patio entertaining at other seasons and elsewhere than in the Southwest.

Yes, Virginia, there's a Palm Springs! It's as American as chewinggum... with the plquant chicle flavor that comes from a combination of ideas... brought here from the New England states... from the Bible Belt... from the hustle and bustle of Chicago, Cleveland and Kansas City... from sophisticated San Francisco... the hurly burly of Greater Los Angeles... the Never-Never Land of Hollywood... and from the rain countries of the northwest...

It's a desert gem... as strange as the rocks that glow only in fluorescent lights... By day it glitters in the desert sunshine... which strikes shafts of brilliance from close to 1800 swimming pools... By night it glitters with neon jewels... and the necklace of lighted palm trees that is a double strand of diamond brilliants across the breast of Palm Springs...

In a semi-Tiffany setting of pronged mountains... it ornaments the native beauty of the desert... in artful contrast to the wind-rippled sand dunes... and the pastels of the far-off mountains...

It's the still beauty of desert nights... a-glitter with stars... and the warm beauty of desert days... It's the romantic rose glow of the Tower of Stars at El Mirador... and the 300-year-old palm tree at Horace Heidt's Lone Palm... It's the incredible beauty of The Tennis Club... glowing with lights up on the mountainside... It's the glamor of Charlie Farrell's Racquet Club... where you rub elbows at the bar with terrestrial stars... the exotic charm of the Beachcomber... the elegance of Romanoff's on the Rocks... the half-million-dollar Huddle Springs... and the gemlike perfection of the Biltmore...

It's the gaiety and perfection of Irwin Schman's Chi Chi... that brings the great names of show business to Palm Springs... It's Howard Manor with its Christmas card exterior... and the golden diningroom at Oasis... It's the tradition at Marion Davies Desert Inn... the fun at the Doll House... the intimacy at The Dunes... It's the hellzapoppin' informality at the Ranch Club Sunday Brunch... the smart Saints and Sinners Room at La Paz... It's the outdoor art mart each Saturday... and the glitter and glamor of Palm Canyon shops...

It's desert breakfast rides... with Jack Boyer's blueberry pancakes... and the western songs of Johnny Boyle... It's Sunday Brunch at El Mirador and Tex Kidwell singing... It's dancing to Teddy Noell's music at the Racquet Club... It's Fiesta Night with the Guadalajara Boys at the Huddle-Springs... It's golf and tennis... swimming and polo... night clubbing and cafe society...

It's walled estates ringed with white oleanders... marble palaces and small weekend retreats... homes, churches, schools and markets... It's Desert Circus Week and zany hats... and some in cotton shirts and jeans... and some in $1000 outfits... on riding horses loaded down with silver trappings... It's the cross that burns high on the hillside... and the lighted palm trees along Palm Canyon Drive... It's all things to all people and those who know it best... love it the most...

Yes, Virginia, there's a Palm Springs!... And here's sand in your shoes... and a Merry Christmas wish... that the approaching New Year... will bring you many days of desert warmth... and nights of desert gaiety...

Merry Christmas, everyone... everywhere... from The Tennis Club to the City Hall... from Smoke Tree to Racquet Club... and out to Thunderbird, Cathedral City, Rancho Mirage and Palm Desert... to Desert Hot Springs, Yucca and 29 Palms... to Cabazon and Banning... and a great big Merry, Merry...

Villagers at Fleming Party

Easily one of the most dramatic of the holiday affairs in San Diego was hosted by former Palm Springs Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fleming and several of their Palm Springs friends were among the 300 guests attending this formal affair in the smart Cotillion Room of El Cortez Hotel.

This holiday party, which celebrates the Flemings' anniversary, has become traditional and in other years it has been held in Chicago and Palm Springs. The hostess received her guests in a red brocaded Fontana featuring the Christmas flower the poinsettia, and wearing red satin slippers and long red satin gloves with a wristlet corsage of white orchids. The red of her gown repeated the Yule red that with winter white and gold, made the colorful decor.

Tables were covered with white linen cloths with a deep Victorian drop, and lofty decorations of vibrant red carnation plaques topped gold candelabra, where #ed tapers shed a flattering glow on the diners, who were seated at intimate tables for eight.

An orchestra played for dancing between courses, which included lobster thermidor served with imported wines, and concluded with ice cream snowballs in a creme de menthe sauce.

Among Villagers in attendance at the brilliant affair were Messrs. and Mesdames Walter Braunsch-weiger, John Q. McClure, W. B. Malouf, Kenneth Kirk, Dan Dunlap, Irving Snyder, Wade Ambrose, George Dulany, S. P. Manasse, and Miss Beth Scott.

The Flemings will be in Palm Springs as houseguests of the Dulany's in January and will be here for the Sponsors Ball. Mrs. Fleming was active in the Playhouse Guild during their years of residence here.

Council Passes Sales, Use Tax Sharing Law

Palm Springs City Council last night by a unanimous vote approved an ordinance which would give the County of Riverside five per cent of the revenue from Sales and Use tax within the city, for a period of six months.

Local councilmen long before had indicated that they would give up 5 per cent of their revenue, approximately $7,000 for six months, to save the Bradley-Burns Act in this county.

Palm Springs' action followed a move by Corona Monday afternoon in which they acted to retain the Bradley-Burns agreement by voting to give 10 per cent to the county for the next six months. Added to the resolution passed by Corona was a stipulation that the League of Riverside County Cities continue to work for a reduction in the amount of money to be given by each city and to equalize the contributions.

The local ordinance will go into effect on Jan. 1, 1959, and ends June 30, 1959, the same as Corona.

Corona has waged an unsuccessful battle for many months in an attempt to be exempt from payment to the sales tax program, but did not receive support from any city or the Board of Supervisors.

13 in Family Found Huddled In Icy Shack

MONTREAL — (UPI) — Eleven brothers and sisters, found huddled in an unheated shack with their mother and grandmother, began their Christmas celebration in St. Justine's Hospital today where they were being treated for frostbite, malnutrition and exposure.

Ranging in age from 9 months to 13 years, they were found Tuesday night by Cote St. Catharine Mayor James Guerin, who was making an annual Christmas round for contributions to the poor.

"Those poor kids," he said. "Only the 13-year-old girl could talk, the rest were too numb to cry."

Guerin said he found them in a windowless St. Lawrence Seaway construction shack in a backwoods area of Cote St. Catharine. The room temperature of the shack was said to have dropped as low as zero.

A spokesman for St. Justine's Hospital said the entire staff had taken the forlorn children to their hearts, and it was expected they would have the most enjoyable Christmas they ever had.

"We always give every child in the hospital a present Christmas Day," the spokesman said. "And we're going to make sure 11 more gifts are found for these new patients."

The condition of the 11 was not serious, he added.

The father, Clifford Maybury, could not be located.

Ike Pledges Determination To Strive for World Peace

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The national Christmas tree stood today as a symbol of America's determination to work for peace.

President Eisenhower expressed this sentiment when he pressed a button that lighted a giant 75-foot Christmas tree in the "President's Park" just behind the south portico of the White House.

The ceremony Tuesday in the early dusk of a Washington winter night opened the capitol's fifth annual pageant for peace.

THE PRESIDENT, in a brief Christmas message to the American people, said the United States has "pledged its national honor to work for peace."

In pressing the button turning on the 7,000 lights on the 75-foot spruce, the President said "I pray that the darkness, which at times has encompassed the world, may be illuminated by the light of understanding and cooperation of all the nations that earnestly seek peace in the year ahead."

THE PRESIDENT also pledged to all the peoples of the world that the United States never would use its military strength "to break the peace."

Speaking on behalf of all Americans, he assured persons in foreign lands that this nation and its people "do not want war" nor do they want "to enslave or control any other nation or any other people."

AMERICANS AND their government "seek only to enjoy with their fellow men peace — a peace of honor and justice," he declared.

ed. "They respect the rights of all people to do the same."

But he said "the United States is strong—and will remain strong—because that is the only way in today's world that the peace can be protected."

He also assured the free peoples of the world that this country "will never retreat in the face of force—or the threat of force."

AT THE SAME time, he said, it "will always welcome and accept serious and honest proposals to negotiate international differences."

The President said the angels' Christmas message of "peace on earth, good will toward men" was not alone the idea of Christians. He said it was "a basic aspiration of Christian, Jew, Moslem, Hindu, Buddhist alike — of every person in the world who has faith in an almighty God."

He ended his 500 - word message with the wish:

"To the men, women, and children of America and to all peoples throughout the world — a merry Christmas and a happy New Year."

"Good night — and peace be with you!"

Christmas Tragedy

Three Children Trapped by Fire

LONG BEACH, Calif. (UPI) — A fire flashed through a two-story frame house early today, killing three small children trapped in an upstairs bedroom.

A passing cab driver spotted the fire in the six-room home and relayed a fire call to his dispatcher before attempting to enter the blazing home.

MRS. CATHERINE Sanders, 25, had gone to a store briefly after watching a late television show and returned to find her home enveloped in flames and her children, aged 4 to 8, trapped in the pre-Christmas tragedy.

An official said the blaze of unknown origin spread so fast through the small home that there was no chance for the children to escape down the stairwell.

HE SAID MRS. Sanders, who was separated from her husband, was in a state of severe shock and could not be questioned about the possibility that a misplaced cigarette might have started the fire.

Cab driver Arthur Sprock said he noticed the flames in a ground floor bedroom near the stairwell leading to the second floor.

"By the time I called my dispatcher it seemed flames were coming out of every door and window," he said.

SPROCK SAID HE called out to see if anyone was in the home but received no answer. He said he tried to enter the burning home but could not because of the towering flames.

Dewey Returns To New York

NEW YORK — (UPI) — Former Gov. Thomas E. Dewey came home for Christmas by plane from California today, looking and feeling fit after three days in a Palm Springs Hospital with what he said was a virus infection.

Dewey, accompanied by Mrs. Dewey, said, "I feel lots better." He was stricken after five days of a planned 10 - day vacation "with sunshine and golf," in the California desert.

First phase of the moving operation saw Fitzpatrick, who has been in virtually every nation on the globe, finding suitable locations for such souvenirs of various journeys as an Alaskan totem pole and a Chinese urn. The lecturer, who is seeking to establish a television station in Palm Springs, is also an author ("Fireside Travels in South America") and has been dubbed the "Voice of the Globe" by reviewers of his addresses. Fitzpatrick and his wife Leslie, along with four of their children, are still engaged in moving into their new home on Burton Way. The children, Jo Ann, Kathy, Tony and Greg, are aiding them. ## Dear Abby...

...by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I have been planning our "Dream House" for over six years. I showed our plans to my sister-in-law (my husband's sister) and they broke ground before we did, and do you know that woman stole my floor plan! I didn't realize what was happening until I went over there and looked around. When the realization hit me I had to have the doctor for my nerves. My husband says we will have to change our plans now because we don't want it said we copied them. THEY copied US! I say we should go ahead and use our plans anyway—What would you do? COPIED

DEAR ABBY: I have three boys. They are 3, 2 and six months old. The three-year-old teases the two-year-old and makes him scream. This goes on from dawn till dusk and drives me crazy. I am busy enough taking care of the baby and every time I hear that shrill scream I have to run to them to see who's getting murdered. For a while I punished the older one, figuring it was his fault, but I found the younger one screaming for nothing. I can't be with them every minute. Can anyone tell me what to do?

DEAR ABBY: I am a 13-year-old girl and would like to know something. When a boy asks a girl to dance and she dances with him and it comes time to sit her down, is it the boy's place to say "THANK YOU" to the girl, or is it the girl's place to say "THANK YOU" to the boy? If the boy says "THANK YOU" to the girl, what should the girl say to him, if anything? JUDY

DEAR ABBY: My daughter told me that her boyfriend is going to give her a ring at Easter time. They've gone together for three years, off and on. They broke up several times, but have always gotten back together again. Some of our relatives are coming to visit around the first of the year. I would like to give a sort of "pre-engagement" party for the couple but don't know if it would be proper since she doesn't have her ring yet. Have you any suggestions?

DEAR ABBY: Don't count your chickens before they're hatched

DEAR ABBY: I am a 13-year-old girl and would like to know something. DEAR ABBY: After the boy has danced with the girl she should say "THANK YOU." And then he should say to her, "Thank YOU!"

Comeback of Casey
Top '58 Sports Story

By OSCAR FRALEY, United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI)—The fact that the mighty Casey didn't strike out—but that the New York Yankees were the first team in 33 years to come back from a 1-3 deficit and win the World Series—was the number one sports story of 1958.

That comeback surge swept the perennial world champions into the top sports spot of the year. It took a lot of doing, too, because this was a year replete with muscular headlines.

THE TOP 10, from here, were:

1. The Yankees' series comeback.
2. Roy Campanella's near-fatal auto accident.
3. Silky Sullivan's buildup and fall.
4. Columbia defeats Sceptre in America's Cup.
5. Jimmy Bryan's win and Pat O'Connor's death at Indianapolis.
6. Herb Elliott's 3:54.5 world record mile.
7. Tommy Bolt's U.S. Open win and subsequent probation.
8. Ray Robinson regains middleweight crown from Carmen Basilio.
9. Rafer Johnson's Moscow decathlon world record.
10. Terry Brennan fired at Notre Dame.

THERE WERE A lot of other good ones. There was the opening of major league baseball on the Pacific Coast and the rhubarb at Los Angeles over the short left field fence. There was Ashley Cooper's tennis triple and the football Giants beating the Browns in the pro football playoff.

Floyd Patterson made news by knocking out built-up Roy Harris; Tim Tam's broken leg ruined his Triple Crown bid; Archie Moore kayaked Yvon Durelle in the best brawl since Dempsey-Firpo; Russia sent two horses to the Washington International; the New York grand jury probe of boxing, and Dow Finsterwald's PGA victory over Sam Snead.

But the way in which the Yankees clawed their way back to a seventh world championship in 10 years put the icing on the cake. They were counted out, trailing three games to one, but then stood the Braves and the nation on their collective ear by winning three straight.

CAMPANELLA'S plunge into paralysis on an icy road stunned the sports world and his battle to regain the use of his body was a continuing story of alternate hope and despair. Silky Sullivan's buildup as a Cinderella horse amounted to a national frenzy, tailing off as he ran 12th in the Derby and dying completely in the Preakness.

Columbia's defense of the America's Cup against Britain's Sceptre was a sea-going Silky Sullivan tale, the American boat winning four straight from the invading craft. O'Connor's death in a breath-taking crash at Indianapolis marked the annual 500-mile race won by Jimmy Bryan.

Elliott was a fantastic performer whose feat of running 10 times under the old four-minute barrier, capped by his world record, was a year-long epic. Bolt's saga stretched over a period of time, too, as temperamental Tommy won the Open and then was put on indefinite probation for unbecoming conduct.

ROBINSON, already a ring immortal, proved himself again by regaining the middleweight crown—again—from Basilio. Johnson went to Moscow for a head-and-head battle with Russia's Vasily Kuznetsov, who had broken Rafer's world mark, and the big Californian got the mark back with a dazzling 8,302-point world mark. And Terry Brennan's dismissal as head grid coach at Notre Dame raised such a riot among the alumni that it figured to have repercussions into the new year. Which will have to go some to match 1958.

SMC Netters to Play Balboa Club

PALM DESERT — Inter-club tennis matches between Balboa Bay Club and Shadow Mountain Club, will be played at the Shadow Mountain courts, Saturday, Jan. 17 and Sunday, Jan. 18, 1959, according to club manager, Ray H. Stager.

Other special recreational events also scheduled for the club during the 1959 season, will be announced at a later date, Stager said.

Dodgers Get
Rip Repulski
From Phils

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The Los Angeles Dodgers turned the other cheek today on their "youth program," and had a 30-year-old power-hitting outfielder in a pre-Christmas trade in which they gave up prize rookie George Anderson.

Rip Repulski, one-time flash of the St. Louis Cardinals who managed to sock 13 homers for Philadelphia in 1958, will take up the assault on the shallow 250-foot left field screen at Memorial Coliseum.

The Phils gave up Repulski and two farmhands, pitchers Gene Snyder, a left hander, and right hander Jim Golden, to get Anderson, who had a brilliant minor league record at second base.

He's only 24, seemingly in keeping with the Dodgers' youth program which has seen the club spend large sums to get prize rookie talent.

But E. J. (Buzze) Bavasi, the Dodger general manager, said "with Charlie Neal, one of the best second basemen in the business, we just didn't have a spot for George."

"And believe me, Anderson deserves a chance to play in the majors."

Roy Hamey of the Phils said "we've been dickering for Anderson all winter. He's a classy infielder with great potential."

The Philadelphia club had its biggest problems in the infield during the past season.

West Coast Sports Boom
Hits All-Time Peak in 1958

By HAL WOOD

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The West Coast sports boom hit its all-time peak in 1958 with the addition of major league baseball to such well-established and going concerns as horse racing, pro and college football, boxing, basketball, etc.

The Dodgers moved from Brooklyn to Los Angeles, finished a disappointing fifth and still drew nearly 2,000,000 fans into the Los Angeles Coliseum. The Giants traveled from New York to San Francisco, and with a surprisingly fine third-place finish, attracted 1,225,000 in the little 23,000 Seals Stadium.

HOWEVER, THE boom wasn't in baseball alone. It continued its onward-and-upward march in horse racing, too. The major tracks at Santa Anita, Hollywood Park, Golden Gate Fields, Del Mar, Bay Meadows and Tanforan had a record season. So did the county fairs.

There were 285 days of "big time" racing in the state, which accounts for most of the days of the year except Sundays and the 10 days around Christmas. During those 285 days, 4,858,473 fans went to the tracks and they bet a whopping $363,344,000.

JORDAN, AKINS RETURN
BOUT SET FOR MARCH 6

ST. LOUIS — (UPI) — Detailed arrangements were under way today for the world welterweight title bout to be fought here March 6 between champion Don Jordan and former champion Virgil Akins.

The fight will be sponsored by the regular Friday night television sponsor but it will be blacked out on screens in the St. Louis area, Eddie Yawitz, Akins' co-manager, said Tuesday. It was rumored that sponsors for the fight were not available because of Akins' poor showing in his last title fight.

The bout will be promoted by the International Boxing Club and the fighters will split 60 per cent of the proceeds.

In tennis, Perry Jones of Los Angeles took over as captain of the U. S. Davis Cup team.

THE FOUR-MINUTE mile became a matter of common practice in the West. Herb Elliott of Australia ran it in 3:57.8 in the Coliseum Relays; in 3:58.1 in the Compton Relays; and in 3:57.9 in the National AAU meet at Bakersfield.

Los Angeles took over as the fight center of the West and staged several championship bouts. Archie Moore of San Diego won "fighter of the year" accolades for his comeback against Yvon Durelle. Archie, some place between 40 and 50 years old, got off the deck four times to win by a kayo and retain his light heavyweight crown at Montreal.

San Francisco's Bob Rosburg won the Vardon Trophy as the lowest-scoring golfer in the country. Frank Stranahan won the Los Angeles Open; Billy Casper the Crosby Clambake; E. J. (Dutch) Harrison, the Tijuana Open; Ken Venturi the Palm Springs and Phoenix tourneys and Lionel Hebert came through at Tucson. At Las Vegas, where first place is worth $10,000, Canada's Stan Leonard came through.

This was the year the Pacific Coast Conference played its swansong in football and the title went to coach Pete Elliott's surprising University of California Bears, who play Iowa in the Rose Bowl New Year's Day.

THE PCC BASKETBALL crown was won by California, also, for the second year in a row. University of San Francisco captured the West Coast Athletic Conference championship again.

In pro football, both Los Angeles and San Francisco had disappointing seasons. The Forty Niner campaign, which ended with a 6-6 record, resulted in coach Frankie Albert resigning and his assistant, Red Hickey, being appointed to succeed him. Both teams, however, had great seasons at the gate, playing to near-sellouts.

All in all, it was a fine year for sports in the booming West—with the prospects that 1959 would be even better.

Officer Refuses to Cite Speeding Motorist

Palm Desert, Dec. 20—Frederick T. Clearwater, 230 Avenida Suenia, apparently in a fit of enthusiasm, drove his family 85 miles per hour to show them the beautiful new El Dorado Palms Estates, bordering Indian Wells Golf Course. The arresting officer offered two valid reasons for his refusal to cite Clearwater: "First, I've seen El Dorado Palms Estates and well understand his enthusiasm. Secondly, Clearwater is my brother-in-law." Remember, you don't need influence to see beautiful El Dorado Palms. Simply call your realtor and drive over. Slowly, of course.—ADV.

Colts' Fast Linemen
Howell's Big WorryTrouble
Ahead for His Giants

NEW YORK — (UPI) — "They've got big, fast linemen on both offense and defense."

That's the real reason Coach Jim Lee Howell believes his New York Giants will have their hands full with the Baltimore Colts in Sunday's Yankee Stadium game for the National Football League championship.

Of course, Howell usually opens any discussion of the Colts by mentioning their quarterback, John Unitas, and their elusive pass-receiver, Lenny Moore.

But if you ask him for the main reason he picks the Colts as tough customers, he'll talk about those big linemen.

"WE THINK THE Colts have the best blocking in the league," Howell said. "You take their big offensive tackle, Jim Parker. In a game, he doesn't seem to be doing too much out there."

"But when you look at films of Baltimore games, you usually see the defensive end hung up on Parker's shoulders with his feet spinning."

"Unitas gets rid of the ball quicker than the Cleveland quarterbacks we played the last two weeks. But he doesn't actually have to because he gets tremendous protection from his blockers."

HOWELL WATCHED his own defensive linemen destroy Cleveland's Eastern Division hopes in last Sunday's game as they repeatedly threw quarterbacks Milt Plum and Jim Ninowski for losses. He has the same respect for Baltimore husky defensive linemen — Gene (Big Daddy) Lipscomb (288), Art Donovan (270), Don Joyce (255) and Gino Marchetti (240).

Would-Howell like poor weather to help combat Baltimore's offensive speed?

"No, sir," he said with a grin. "We want the best weather. I always want a fast field."

ROY'S GETTING AROUND, NOW—Roy Campanella (in wheelchair), former Dodgers' catcher, shares pushbutton honors with George York as they start some toy electric trains in a model train showroom in New York. George is the New York Police Athletic league's Boy of the Year. With them are Campanella's children, Tony, 8; Roy, Jr., 10; Princess, 5.

Kuharich Not Looking For Perfect Season

SOUTH BEND, Ind. — (UPI) — Joe Kuharich, Notre Dame's new football coach, doesn't know what kind of a won and lost record he needs to keep the job, and he can't foresee the undefeated season the Irish old grads expected when they pressed the dismissal of Terry Brennan for winning six out of ten games.

Kuharich doesn't expect to go unbeaten, because "any coach who expects an undefeated season is groping for the unbelievable," he said.

Actually, Kuharich doesn't know what he's going to have to try to build the Irish back to a 10-0 record. He said he hadn't seen Notre Dame play last year and his knowledge of personnel was limited to what he could learn in a few film clips seen on television and what Brennan's assistant coaches might tell him.

Before he returned to Washington, where he gave up four years remaining on his contract to coach the Redskins, he met with all of Brennan's assistants, except Bernie Crimmins, and he picked up films of the Irish 1958 games with Purdue and North Carolina for future study.

Crimmins, former head coach at Indiana, skipped meeting with Kuharich because he wanted to get out of football if he could arrange a career in private business and Kuharich wanted the North Carolina and Purdue films because Notre Dame opens against them in that order next fall.

Later, Kuharich will determine whether he will keep any of Brennan's assistants.

State to Send 'Greeting' Cards To Car Owners

On the day after Christmas another kind of greeting card will go out to some 6,500,000 Californians.

It's the annual machine-punched card that tells every owner of a registered automobile that the time is here again to renew his vehicle registration for the ensuing year.

For half a million recipients, something new has been added for 1959. To these will go a card bearing a green stripe designating a special kind of registration and bestowing on the owner a special kind of privilege.

WE'RE TALKING about station wagons.

For years the status of the station wagon in California has been a real hot potato. Normally registered as a private pleasure car, at pleasure car fees, the station wagon was the center of controversy between the owner and traffic enforcement agencies.

Owners frequently were given tickets for hauling various kinds of goods which officers interpreted as placing the vehicles in the commercial category. The mixup became so acute that the Legislature in 1958 amended the registration laws relating to station wagons.

UNDER THIS NEW amendment "wagon" owners will now pay an additional $1 registration fee, and this will solve all their problems as far as the transportation of goods is concerned. Starting with the registration year of 1959, a station wagon owner may haul anything he desires, with the single exception of passengers for hire.

10 Clergymen Advise How To Keep Christ in Christmas

By LOUIS CASSELS
United Press International
For several years, churches have been imploring Americans to "keep Christ in Christmas." Many Christian families are ready, even eager, to cooperate. But how? What can one family do to rescue the birthday of Christ from commercialization . . . to make its real significance clear to children?

UNITED PRESS International put the question to 10 of the nations leading clergymen. Their answers, as could be expected, varied widely. But there were several common themes.

Virtually all of them emphasized the importance of worship—not only attendance at church services, but worship in the home, with the whole family taking part.

"Read the Christmas story from the Bible on Christmas Eve," counseled the very Rev. Francis B. Sayre, dean of Washington Cathedral.

"LET THE FATHER of the family explain to the children in simple words the meaning of Christmas," said the Rt. Rev. James A. Pike, Episcopal bishop of California.

Catholic Archbishop Joseph F. Rummel of New Orleans recommended "the recitation of the Rosary every evening in the family circle, and the preparation of a beautiful crib to be unveiled in every home on Christmas Eve."

METHODIST BISHOP G. Bromley Oxnam of Washington said Christmas should be treated as "a day of thought," as well as a day of merriment. "Begin the day with the family singing a Christmas carol . . . then let each individual meditate upon the significance of the first Christmas gift, which was God's gift of his Son."

Most of the clergymen agreed that exchanging gifts is an appropriate Christmas custom — if it is done in the right spirit. But they deplored the giving of expensive gifts for business reasons, for purely social motives, or for show.

"It would be better to stop the custom altogether than to let Christmas giving so degenerate," said Dr. Eugene Carson Blake, stated clerk of the United Presbyterian Church.

THE REV. E. C. Scott, stated clerk of the Southern Presbyterian Church, said the best antidote for a "selfish" approach to Christmas is to "center our thoughts and gifts on those from whom we can expect nothing in return." And he emphasized: "Not merely gifts of money, but of time and companionship."

Bishop Christopher J. Weldon of the Catholic Diocese of Springfield, Mass., offered this suggestion about gifts:

"Let those to whom you are giving gifts know that these gifts are being given to honor the birthday of the Christ child, and to imitate his example of opening the heart to others."

THE RT. REV. Thomas K. Gorman, Catholic bishop of Dallas-Forth Worth, said care should be taken that Christmas cards, as well as gifts, have "true Christian significance." Greeting cards that have no religious theme — and especially the so-called "comic" cards that have shown up in recent years — are entirely inappropriate, he said.

Several ministers urged that Santa Claus be de-emphasized.

The Rev. John T. Tavlarides of the Greek Orthodox Cathedral of St. Sophia, Washington, said Santa Claus has been so thoroughly "identified with commercialism" that his symbolic value has been lost.

MSGR. IRVING A. Deblanc, director of the Family Life Bureau of the National Catholic Welfare Conference suggested Santa Claus be quietly replaced by the real-life Saint Nicholas whose name, pronounced "sinter klaas" by early Dutch immigrants to America, gradually evolved into the modern Santa Claus.

Saint Nicholas was a Christian bishop who lived in Asia minor during the fourth century A. D. He distributed gifts to children, and to the poor, at Christmas.

Well Known Desert Cafe Owner Named B-Bar-H Chef

DESERT HOT SPRINGS—Dean Powell, well known desert area cafe owner and restaurant manager, was today named as the new chef for the B-Bar-H Guest Ranch here.

Richard La Forge, who recently purchased the 35-year-old desert resort ranch, said Powell will head all ranch culinary operations, including the new kitchen and coffee shop operations.

Powell, who recently sold his Azusa cafe, has operated a coffee shop in Twentynine Palms for 10 years and is still owner of the cafe.

He is also former manager of the San Souci Restaurant in Indio and was, for three years, manager of the Long Beach restaurant of the Clock Restaurant chain.

Powell is now living at the Bar-B-H Ranch with his wife, Vivian.

MRA Assembly To Be Held In Los Angeles

Government, business and labor spokesmen from the United States, Europe and Africa will participate in an assembly on Moral Re-Armament for America and the Pacific Nations in Los Angeles next week.

The public is invited to attend the assembly, which runs from Dec. 26 through Jan. 4 at the Times Theater, 938 South Figueroa.

Theme of the assembly is based on "our part in the new era in the Pacific," officials said.

Among representatives from 12 Asian nations taking part will be Rajmohan Gandhi, grandson of Mahatma Gandhi.

State Taxation Committee May Ask Use of Reserves

A possibility that California's drastic need for revenue to keep the general fund solvent may not be remedied by introduction of new or higher taxes was voiced yesterday by 71st District Assemblyman Lee Backstrand.

Backstrand, in Sacramento for legislative sessions, said that members of the joint interim committee on taxation, in exploring various solutions to the problem, may ask the legislature to utilize reserves that have been building up in several funds earmarked for other uses.

THE ASSEMBLYMAN said that the solvency of the general fund now presents what he termed "a grim picture."

"Experts," he said, "fix the year-end deficit at anywhere from $100 to $133 million." He said that unless some answer is found to remedying the deficit, the debt could run close to $300 million by the end of next year.

All reserves in the general fund have been exhausted, Backstrand said, and even the $75 million "rainy day" fund will be used up this year.

STILL UNEXPENDED, although special legislative sanction would be needed to disturb them, are reserves in the investment fund of $154 million and in several other funds, totaling $115 million.

"While these have been built up by various regulatory boards and agencies," Backstrand said, "the legislature could conceivably order their transfer to the general fund as credit against the deficit."

The assemblyman said that "a thorough study" is still being conducted by the interim committee.

Americans ate about twice as much chicken in 1957 as they did 20 years ago.
